of the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1972. These are as follows:—

Rule 26(4)

The appointing authority may permit a person to withdraw his resignation in the public interest on the following conditions, namely:—

(i) that the resignation was tendered by the Government servant for some compelling reasons which did not involve any reflection on his integrity, efficiency or conduct and the request for withdrawal of the resignation has been made as a result of a material change in the circumstances which originally compelled him to tender the resignation;

(ii) that during the period intervening between the date on which the resignation became effective and the date from which the request for withdrawal was made, the conduct of the person concerned was in no way improper;

(iii) that the period of absence from duty between the date on which the resignation became effective and the date on which the person is allowed to resume duty as a result of permission, to withdraw the resignation is not more than ninety days;

(iv) that the post, which was vacated by the Government servant on the acceptance of his resignation or any other comparable post, is available.

Request for withdrawal of a resignation shall not be accepted by the appointing authority where a Government servant resigns his service or post with a view to taking up an appointment in or under a private commercial company or in or under a corporation or company wholly or -substantially owned or controlled by the Government or in or under a body controlled or financed by the Government.

(c) and (d) During the last one year, one such case of an ex-cmployec of the Andaman & Nicobar Administration was received by the Ministry of Home Affairs who, after consultation with the Department of Personnel & Training, decided on the merits of the case to reject the request made by the said ex-employee for withdrawal of his resignation.
